I begin this pilgrimage

Your chicken plants rain chicken fat on the houses of the poor. Your chickens eat and excrete arsenic. You have ruined the lives of 1000s, you have ruined Northeast Texas.

BO PILGRIM

Wait, I know what its like to work from can till can't! If I have brought a little poverty to my region, well, just remember, that in our school-and-church towns, a little poverty can be a good thing. If I

BETH WILMINGTON

We have Mr. Ben Bickerstaff with us, an infamous neo Confederate Raider in the year, Anno Domini 1867.

Ben you changed from a high-strung gentleman to an outlaw. Why?

BEN BICKERSTAFF

It was a natural evolution because of the sordid events of the Civil War.

BETH

Ben you lost the war. The Yankees won. Get it through your head. And yet, you plundered Northeast Texas communities after the Civil War, why?

BEN BICKERSTAFF

You must understand, Mam. We Confederate Veterans returned to nothing after the war.

The best horses trembled with the staggers. The cows had tics. The cotton withered with root rot.

This was our lot.

The land was suffocating.

And the People were unfaithful to our cause.

BETH WILMINGTON

Why was Northeast Texas called the Devil's Triangle after the Civil War?

In a practical way all throughout the 1920s. I was of course a leader of the Mexican Revolution before that, the man who outfoxed Pancho Villa, Venustiano Carranza, and the whole lot of them.

CAROL:

What happened to your arm?

OBREGÓN:

I lost it fighting for the Revolution!

CAROL:

What did you bring to Mexico?

Obregon:

I brought peace! A million people lost their lives in the Mexican Revolution.

CAROL:

What else?

OBREGÓN:

I brought a new revolutionary settlement for the people of Mexico. Me and my compañeros created a Mexico with its own unique blend of communism. It became a nation without the great landowners, so that the people could own their own land. Mexico became a nation without capitalists, so we could have a socialist order that could decide what was best for the people. Mexico became a natxnle.

Both the great majority of our workers, and our corporation have a great incentive to be law-abiding, good citizens. You are wrong to think that we use the national government against our workers. The Fall of PILGRIM's Pride was a minor disaster for Northeast Texas in the sense that the area lost the headquarters of the world's number one meat operation. Shareholders lost everything. Some 600 of the area's best homes were vacated as JBS moved the PILGRIM Corporation to Greeley, Colorado.

On the plus side, however, the great majority of farmers and distributors of PILGRIM's Pride did not lose their operations or any outstanding obligations owed to them by PILGRIM's. PILGRIM banks, initiated in 1993, continued to flourish, with Bo PILGRIM as the majority stockholder. Today there are 16 PILGRIM banks stretching throughout the state of Texas. The PILGRIM brand also continued to appeal to the extent that JBS has kept the PILGRIM Pride name to the present day. In the year, 2020, Tyson's is again the number one chicken company in the world. JBS's PILGRIM Pride, however, is the number two chicken producer in the nation.
